N. B. HARVEY EXONERATED

Webster County Man Who Was Called a Hypocritical Libertine Preacher

BY REP. PUMPHREY HAS CONFIDENCE OF CHURCH AND FRIENDS

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 12. Frankfort is in a turmoil tonight as the result of a clash today in the house of representatives durag the debate upon the statewide prohibition bill between Reps. J. D. Pumphrey of Fieming county and W. B. Harvey of Webster, in which the lie was passed and Harvey was referred to by Pumphrey as "a hypocritial libertine preacher." A fist fight was narrowly averted.

J. D. Pumphrey, following attack on Gov. Stanley by W. B. Harvey, arose and said:

Our governor has been slandered by the member from Webster. Gov. Stanley has never in any hotel caused a woman's voice to ring out until the night watchman was attracted. It is not fitting, therefore, that he be attacked by a hypocritical, libertine preacher, who has attempted consortium with a chamberpaid."

Rep. Harvey at this point leaped to his feet and advancing down the aisle of the chamber, charged Pumphrey with falsifying and then declared: 'The member from Fleming county has presented himself before the chamber as a dry advocate and I want to say now that when he did that he lied. If he votes in favor of the proposed amendment he will do so because-of the pressure exerted by his constitu-

"As to the charge of J. D. Pumphrey on the floor of the house, that I insulted a woman in the Capitol hotel, is as black a falsehood as was ever deliberately and maliciously planned by an unprincipled man against his enemy. I challenge Mr. Pumphrey and the woman to show their proof in support of his charge, and if Mr. Pumphrey or the woman, or Mr. Pumphrey and the woman, have one scintilla of evidence, to have me arrested forthwith.

"The truth of the matter is, a strange woman, who, I am informed by the proprietor of the hotel, had never been in the hotel before, came straight from Mr. Pumphrey s door to my room the afternoon and, with the d or sjar, without any cause, bem screaming. Mr. Perry, representative from Louisville, whose room is across the hall from mine, beard me say, "Woman, what is the matter with you?" I burriedly went to inform the proprietor what had happened, and when I reached the foot of the steps Mr. Pumphrey was standing there. In a day or two afterward, Mr. Pumphrey called me into his room and appearing to be in a very good humor, asked me about the affair. I refused to discuss it with him and told him that he knew as much about it as I did. "Since then, some of the men who opposed the state-wide amendment have tried to hold this as a club over my head to keep me from doing what I con- and speechifying to produce the ceive to be my duty as repre- wherewithall for a battleship, but sentative of my people. ROBINSON CASE BEFORE COURT

Man Under Indictment in Tragedy at Hamby Station Last February Being Tried

JUDGE HENDERSON

DENIES CONTINUANCE

When the case of the Commonwealth of Kentucky against Jim Robinson was called in Circuit Court assist in the prosecution, asked the court for a continuance on account of the fact, they stated, of the failure of several important witnesses, scattered over the state, not being present. For the same reason Atts. Fox & Powell and Breathitt and Trimble, representing the defendant, asked case be entered into, claiming that tion and defence were present to beappoint special bailiffs and send them to any part in the state in order to here for the trial. A demurrer to the indictment was filed by the defence, which was immediately overruled by the court. Empanelling the jury started at 8 o'clock in the afternoon, and only seven having been agreed upon on by both sides, as follows: G B. Hale, Lee Oglesby, J. L. Whitfield, G. W. Carey, J. W. Flynn, Willis Walker and O. J. and the sheriff ordered to summon fifty men, from which the jury will probably be completed this morning. Court adjourned until 9 o'clock this morning. Attorneys for the prosecution stated that at least eleven important itnesses were absent, some of them being ill, whi e others were in the eastern part of the stale, Judge Henderson assured them that the court woul have them here if such so many had answered present for work of selecting a jury started.
